

The World of Wonders (WOW) Science Museum and Hospice of San Joaquin are pleased to present Drivers and Drovers taking place Saturday, April 28th at Stokes and den Hartog Farms in the beautiful countryside of Lodi. All proceeds from this annual event will benefit the families of San Joaquin County.

The Drivers and Drovers Event Committee is currently looking for major sponsors and donations of raffle prizes. Would you please consider participating as a donor for this worthwhile event? All donations are tax-deductible. Sponsors and donors will be listed in the program, media coverage and on the WOW and Hospice websites.

With your help, the World of Wonders Science Museum will continue to stimulate inquisitive minds with the intriguing creative process of scientific discovery.

For over thirty years Hospice of San Joaquin has been providing the only free and comprehensive end of life care for patients in San Joaquin County and surrounding communities. This compassionate care continues because of generous donations from the community.

For more information, contact Barbara den Hartog (209) 327-2201 or Sharon Stokes (209) 712-3362.

Sincerely,

The Drivers and Drovers Event Committee

The mission of the World of Wonders Science Museum is to offer hands-on science-based exhibits and programs to stimulate discovery for all ages.

The mission of Hospice of San Joaquin, a not-for-profit organization, is to provide medical and compassionate care, counseling and support to terminally ill patients and their families, regardless of ability to pay, and to educate and collaborate with health care providers and the public in promoting quality end of life care.
